Dear Rex:

I just wanted to send you a quick letter to say "thank you" for a great performance at Panther Creek Country Club on May 5th. I think you could tell from the response of the members in attendance that they too enjoyed your show immensely.

I think starting off the night talking about some of the local newscasters and the areas surrounding Springfield got everyone tuned in to you from the start. I am always amazed at how a person such as yourself can draw an audience in and keep them focused; something you have definitely mastered.

As you said to me, it would be hard to have the same comedian back the following year, but I do look forward to having you back at Panther Creek in the future for more of your insight into the thing we call "life."

Thanks again for a great show!
